Mercy changes how we live

Color the picture. Think of someone you could welcome or help this week.

One kind thing I can SAY:

One kind thing I can DO:

Not only “Who am I?” but “Whose am I?”

Do you want to know Jesus and belong to Him? You can talk honestly with God and ask a trusted adult your questions.

Who am I?

My name: _____

Read the passage

Which mirror tells the truth?

People may ask…

Good-looking? • Smart? • Popular? • Strong? • Rich?

God’s Word says…

Chosen • Royal priesthood • Holy • God’s people • Witnesses

“But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.”

1 Peter 2:9–10 • ESV

Peter writes to people who belong to Christ. Their identity comes from God’s mercy, not from being impressive.

CHOSEN — God calls His people through Christ—not because they are popular.

ROYAL PRIESTHOOD — Through Jesus we can pray to God and serve others. We do not need a pastor to pray for us first.

HOLY — Belonging to God—not being sinless. Stand beside a child who is mocked.

GOD’S PEOPLE — The church is people who belong to Jesus, not a building.

WITNESSES — Tell of God’s mercy with your words and actions.

Going to church or being good does not save us. Jesus died and rose again; His mercy gives new life to those who trust Him.

Crack the verse code

Use A=1, B=2, ..., Z=26. Slashes separate words. Decode this phrase from verse 10. Write the message below.

14·15·23 / 25·15·21 / 1·18·5 / 7·15·4·19 / 16·5·15·16·12·5

One word needs an apostrophe when you write it.

Identity in action

Write the best matching letter beside each situation. Use each letter once. Think about the main lesson—not just a repeated word.

A Chosen • B Royal priesthood • C Holy • D God's people • E Witnesses

☐ 1. The church hall is closed. The believers still meet to worship in a home. Has the church disappeared?

☐ 2. A child is teased for being weak. You refuse to laugh and stand beside that child.

☐ 3. A friend asks why you forgave someone. You explain how Jesus has shown you mercy.

☐ 4. You are not picked for a team. You remember that Christ's call is not a popularity prize.

☐ 5. You are worried at night. You can speak to God through Jesus without waiting for a pastor.

Pick one situation. What could you actually say or do?

Why is kindness a response to God's mercy, not a way to buy it?
