Teacher lesson • Who am I?

15–20 minutes • 1 Peter 2:9–10

0–3 min • Two mirrors

Bring a hand mirror and a Bible. Imagine Michael is left out of a game and another child is mocked for being weak. Hold up the mirror: it shows a face, but can it tell us our worth? People may rank looks, intelligence, popularity, strength or money. None tells us whether we belong to Jesus. Open the Bible as the second ‘mirror’: we listen to what God says, rather than inventing a better ranking.

3–6 min • Read and locate the promise

Read 1 Peter 2:9–10 in full on booklet page 1 (also in this answer key). Peter addresses a people in Christ, not a collection of self-esteem labels that automatically apply to every child. Ask: Who gives mercy? What changes from ‘once’ to ‘now’? Explain: Jesus died for our sins and rose again. Through Him God gives mercy and new life to those who trust Him. Attendance and good behavior cannot earn this.

6–11 min • One people, five connected truths

Chosen: Christ calls His people; popularity does not qualify Michael. Royal priesthood: through Jesus we can approach God, pray, and serve; we do not need a pastor as a go-between, though pastors can help us learn. Holy: set apart to belong to God, not sinless or better than others; Michael can refuse the mockery and stand with the weaker child. God’s people: this family is the church even without its building. Witnesses: having received mercy, they tell of God’s goodness and show it. Ask: How can Michael both help and explain why?

11–16 min • Practice and discuss

Use page 3 together; ask children to explain one choice, not merely name letters. Start the word search or verse code on page 2. Ask: Can we pray when no pastor is there? If we sin, should we hide it or confess and seek forgiveness? Why is defending a mocked child different from trying to look superior? Let slower readers work with a partner. Save unfinished puzzles and coloring for home.

16–19 min • Return to the mirrors

Point back to both mirrors. Which one can tell Michael what belonging to Christ means? Page 4 invites one spoken and one practical response to mercy. Ask ‘Not only who am I, but whose am I?’ Invite questions and trust in Jesus without pressure, a forced prayer, or declaring children saved because they completed the page. Offer to pray with anyone who wants to. End with thanks for God’s mercy.

Accept thoughtful connections and personal responses. Mercy is God’s gift through Jesus, not a payment for kindness. Helping and telling are grateful responses. No single correct coloring or written prayer is required.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
