Who am I?

Open the lesson

“They picked me last,” Michael told Rosie during the break before the game. “Nobody wants me.”
She listened, then took him to Anna, who opened her Bible. “You trust Jesus, Michael. His people are chosen by God to belong to Him, not for being popular.”
Michael looked up. “Can I tell God how I feel?”

1 Peter 2:9 • ESV

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Anna nodded. “We belong to King Jesus. As His royal priesthood, we can pray directly to God through Jesus and serve Him.” Michael could ask for help now: being holy meant belonging to God and learning His ways, not being perfect already. “God, I’m still hurt,” he prayed. “Help me not hold on to anger. Help me be kind.”

Make room for Ben

Later, Ben had one last chance to tie the game, but he missed the ball and fell. The game ended. “We lost because of you!” someone shouted. Michael was disappointed too, but helped Ben up. “It’s okay. I’ve missed before,” he said. Rosie added, “Come sit with us.”

Color the scene. Write Michael’s kind words in the bubble.

“Aren’t you mad at me?” Ben asked.

“I wanted to win, but I’m not going to be mean to you,” Michael said.

Rosie added, “Jesus has been so kind to us. We want to treat you that way too.”

God shows us mercy: although we have sinned, He offers us forgiveness through Jesus, who died for our sins and rose again.

We cannot earn salvation by being kind. We are kind because God has shown us mercy, and we want to follow Jesus.

Why did Michael help Ben?

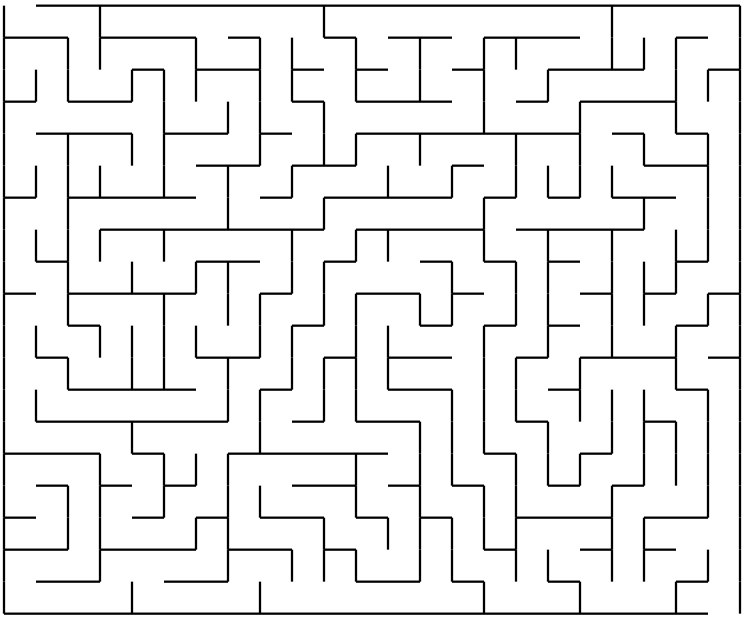

_____

Whose am I?

Back at the table, Michael remembered: God's people are the Church—Christ's family, not a team or a building. Rosie had been a witness: someone who tells others about God's goodness. She had told Ben about Jesus. Belonging to Jesus mattered more than winning or being picked first.

Michael welcomed Ben. Trace a path to Ben without crossing the walls.

1 Peter 2:10 • ESV

Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Who could you welcome? What could you say about Jesus?

Turn to Jesus and trust Him. His mercy is a gift.
