God comes first

Like Michael, we can enjoy God's gifts and share them. They are in our care—not ours to boast about. How will you use what God has given you?

WHO SHARED WHAT?

Each child brought one different gift. Use all 3 clues.

	B	A	P	G
Michael
Rosie
Joseph
Gracie

1. Rosie brought pears.
2. Michael brought neither bread nor apples.
3. Joseph did not bring bread.

B bread · A apples
P pears · G grapes

Cross out no. Circle yes.

AT THE END: Name one gift. How will you care for it or share it?

READ TOGETHER

then take care lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 6:12 · ESV

Jesus died for our sins and rose again. We can ask Him for forgiveness and help.

God, thank You for Your gifts. Keep me humble. Help me care for what You give. Amen.

Remember the Giver

Full lesson

God gave His people good gifts. Moses warned them not to forget Him.

A harvest long ago... Find 6 things that do not belong. Circle them.

So many gifts. One Giver. Thank You, God!

LISTEN: Name a gift you hear about in the sermon.

The king forgot

Moses warned God's people not to forget Him. Years later, a king took the credit for his greatness. God humbled him, and he learned to praise God.

King Nebuchadnezzar • Daniel 4:28–37

Hear about the king? Then put these in order: 1–3.

◯ The king was proud.

◯ God restored him. He praised God.

◯ God took his power away.

A skill God gave me:

Thankful hearts share

Michael is playing. Mom asks, "Will you help take this food to our neighbor? God has given us enough to share."

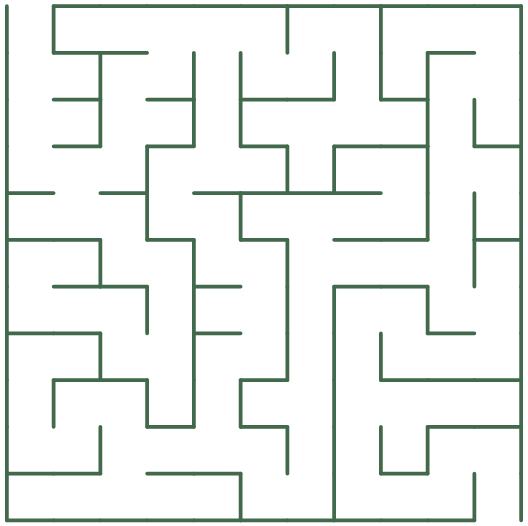

Circle the reply that puts gratitude into action.

◯ "No. My game comes first!"

◯ "Yes! I can pause and help."

Michael chooses to help. Find a path to the neighbor.
