Will you let Him be Lord over your life?

Michael pushed the paper back between them. “I’m sorry I wouldn’t let you choose. Where shall we put your flowers?”
“Around the castle,” Rosie said. He passed her a crayon and listened as she showed him.
Michael prayed quietly, “Jesus, forgive me. I trust You. Help me listen to You instead of always choosing my own way.”

Jesus died for our sins and rose again. He saves us by grace through faith; we obey because we trust Him.

One thing I need to change as I follow Jesus is…

_____

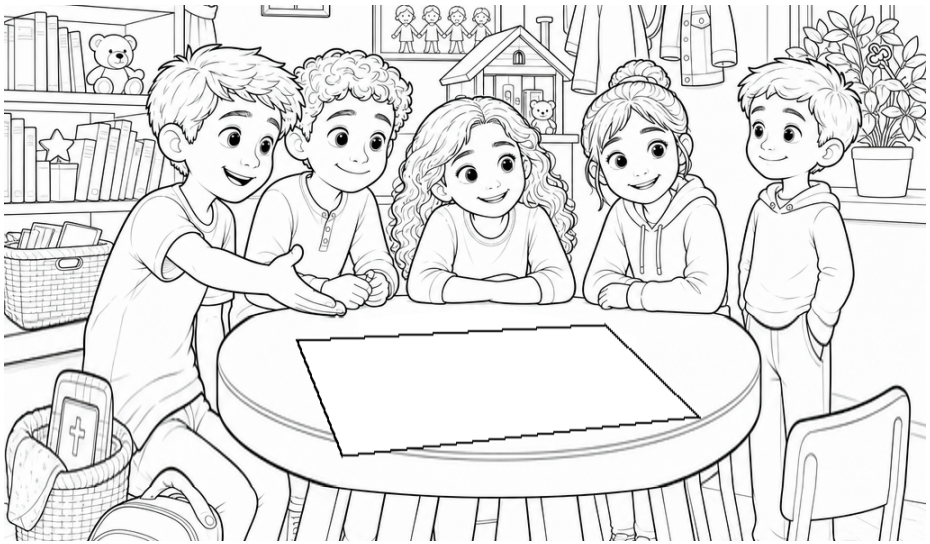

Jesus is already Lord. Will you trust Him and follow Him?

1. What do you think of the CHRIST?

Rosie reached for a crayon. “Could we draw flowers?”
“No, a castle,” Michael said, pulling their shared paper toward himself.
Their teacher noticed. “That picture belongs to both of you. Leave it here while we read.” She opened Matthew. “Today Jesus asks about the Christ, God’s promised King.” Michael put down the crayon and listened as they read about Jesus in the temple.

1 Complete the scene

The friends’ paper is empty! Draw flowers on it so Rosie’s idea becomes part of their picture.

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.”

Matthew 22:41–42

2. Why does David call Him LORD?

The Pharisees said the Christ was David's son. But Jesus showed them that David called Him Lord.
"Wouldn't David be greater than someone in his own family?" Michael asked.
"Jesus is David's descendant, but also God's eternal Son," their teacher explained. "He is truly human and truly God. David calls Him Lord because He is greater than David." They read to the end: no one could answer Jesus.

God's right hand is the place of honor and authority.

He said to them, "How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, "'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'? If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?" And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.
Matthew 22:43–46

3. Will you call Him LORD?

"Then He's our Lord too," Michael said.
"Yes," said their teacher. "Let's read what Jesus says about calling Him Lord."
As she read, Michael looked at the paper he had pulled away from Rosie. He wanted Jesus to be his Lord, but wanted the picture all his own way. Calling Jesus Lord meant listening to Him—even here, with Rosie.

"Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?
Luke 6:46 • ESV

If you keep doing your own thing instead of obeying Jesus, is He really your Lord?

3 Color and circle

Color the scene. Circle four objects that do not belong where they are. Look carefully; people and toys are normal.
